

Charitable Gaming British Columbia

Non-profit organizations may apply for a license to conduct one of the following charitable events: ticket raffles, bingo, poker, wheel of fortune, and social occasion casinos. Contact: British Columbia Lottery Corporation

Charitable Gaming Alberta

In addition to most of the casinos in the province, Alberta also offers legal charitable gaming such as bingo and pull tickets to qualified non-profit groups. Eligible charitable groups need a licence to hold each gaming event (casino, raffle, bingo and pull ticket). Alberta Gaming, Liquor and Cannabis

Charitable Gaming Saskatchewan

Any not-for-profit organization may apply with the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority for a license to conduct bingo or raffles.

Charitable Gaming Manitoba

Not-for-profit organizations within Manitoba can apply for a license to conduct charitable gaming. Activities are overseen by the Liquor and Gaming Authority of Manitoba

Charitable Gaming Ontario

This includes raffles and bingo. The Ontario Lottery and Gaming Corporation oversees licensing of such games.

Bingo & Charitable Gaming Quebec

From bingo and Kinzo to raffles, all charitable gaming within the province is regulated and licensed by Loto-Quebec.

Charitable Gaming Nova Scotia

Video and ticket lotteries, as well as other charitable games such as bingo, fall under the domain of the Atlantic Lottery Corporation.

Charitable Gaming New Brunswick

Over 800 charitable licenses are currently issued to non-profit organizations within the province. Raffles are the most common, although bingo remains the most popular gambling activity among adults 65 or older. Atlantic Lottery Corporation.

Charitable Games Prince Edward Island

Non-profit organization can apply for a license to conduct charitable games such as bingo, raffles, and lottery-style contests. The Prince Edward Island Lotteries Commission has been overseeing gaming in the region since its creation in 1976.

Charitable Gaming Newfoundland and Labrador

Charitable gaming such as raffles and bingo are overseen throughout the province by the Department of Government Services.

Charitable Gaming in Territories

Under the law of the Yukon, only non-profit groups are allowed to host charitable gambling events as a fundraising method. These groups must first be approved by the Registrar of Lotteries, and they must also obtain a license for bingo, raffle, or lottery. In addition to giving away money, lotteries and raffles in this territory are also known for giving away meat and other forms of food.

Do Gooders Inc. Disclaimer

This information is for informational purposes only. We encourage all visitors to confirm the wagering and/or gambling regulations that are applicable in their local jurisdiction as gambling laws may vary in different provinces and territories.